Nashville Zoo Named Among Nation's Best Zoos

“America’s Best Zoos: A Travel Guide for Fans and Families” names Nashville Zoo among the top 60 zoos in America.

Just 11 years after opening, Nashville Zoo is recognized with the nation’s leading zoos, like the San Diego Zoo that was founded nearly a century ago. In addition, the guide cites Nashville Zoo as one of the premier places to see clouded leopards, alligators and meerkats.

“Due to [Nashville Zoo’s] youth, almost all of its exhibits are nearly brand new, built using the most modern exhibit technology to make almost every exhibit look like a gorgeous natural habitat,” says “America’s Best Zoos.” “Because of this, the Nashville Zoo is considered by many in the zoo world to be one of the most beautiful zoos in the nation.”

The Intrepid Traveler, publisher of “America’s Best Zoos,” is dedicated to sharing the joys of travel by helping you expand your travel horizons and make travel an integral part of your life.

Nashville Zoo is accredited by the prestigious Association of Zoos and Aquariums, assuring the highest standards of animal care and husbandry. The Zoo is a non-profit organization located at 3777 Nolensville Road and is open every day except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year’s Day. The mission of Nashville Zoo is to inspire a culture of understanding and discovery of our natural world through conservation, innovation and leadership.
