HealthSpring Presents Second Senior Day at the Zoo

Nashville Zoo and HealthSpring are teaming up again for the second Senior Day at the Zoo on Sept. 26. Seniors 65 and older receive free Zoo admission from 9 a.m. – 4 p.m. Seniors will also receive vouchers from HealthSpring for complimentary hot dogs, chips and water from the Zoofari Market and other concession stands.

Nashville Zoo strives to create enjoyable experiences for guests of all ages, and Senior Day is back by popular demand from Nashville's senior community. Keeper talks will be at various animal exhibits throughout the day, and three animal shows will be presented in the Zoo's amphitheater. The young and young-at-heart can also enjoy rides on the Wild Animal Carousel and adventures through Lorikeet Landing with more than 50 Australian parrots.

Senior Day at the Zoo is the result of a partnership between Nashville Zoo and HealthSpring. HealthSpring is based in Nashville and is one of the country's largest coordinated care plans whose primary focus is the Medicare Advantage market. HealthSpring currently owns and operates Medicare Advantage plans in Tennessee, Texas, Alabama, Florida, Illinois and Mississippi and also offers a national stand-alone Medicare prescription drug plan.
