Summer Fun Continues through September at the Zoo

Continue the summer fun through September with Nashville Zoo's sensational education programs. Add a little wild to a Saturday, or sign up for a six-week series packed with crafts and spectacular animal friends.

Nashville Zoo's toddler series is about to start. The six-week Babes, Twos and Tots series begins the first week of September and is designed for adults to spend time with the child in their lives. Each program runs 45-50 minutes and features crafts, story time, singing and animal friends. Visit www.nashvillezoo.org for age-specific dates, times and registration.

Peace-seekers can find their inner animals at YogaKids on Sept. 13 when Nashville Zoo's education staff partners with YogaKids for the wildest yoga in Music City. Children ages 4 and older can stretch out, relax and actually meet one of the animal inspirations for a pose they learn. YogaKids is held in the Zoo's Croft Center from 9 – 10:30 a.m.

As dusk approaches on Sept. 13, Nashville Zoo offers a completely different experience for the whole family. Twilight Adventures runs from 6 – 10 p.m. and is designed for families with children ages 5 and older. This evening adventure features a twilight hike, snacks, crafts, animal presentations and more. September's theme is "Connecting with Wildlife."

For more information or to register for any of Nashville Zoo's education programs, visit www.nashvillezoo.org.

Nashville Zoo is accredited by the prestigious Association of Zoos and Aquariums, assuring the highest standards of animal care and husbandry. The Zoo is a non-profit organization located at 3777 Nolensville Road and is open every day except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. The mission of Nashville Zoo is to inspire a culture of understanding and discovery of our natural world through conservation, innovation and leadership.
