Predators Day at Nashville Zoo

Get your fang fingers out and head over to Nashville Zoo on Sunday, Aug. 30 for Nashville Predators Day. From 1 – 5 p.m., Nashville Zoo's Festival Field will be slammed with games, giveaways and other activities in anticipation of the upcoming hockey season.

Several Nashville Predators players will be on hand signing autographs from 2 - 3 p.m. Players' names will be released soon. Games, activities and inflatables will be set up on Festival Field, and Predators mascot Gnash and Zoo mascot Twiga will also be in the area meeting guests. Predators Day is included with Zoo admission.

Nashville Zoo is accredited by the prestigious Association of Zoos and Aquariums assuring the highest standards of animal care and husbandry. The Zoo is a non-profit organization located at 3777 Nolensville Road and is open every day except Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's Day. The mission of the Nashville Zoo is to inspire a culture of understanding and discovery of our natural world through conservation, innovation, and leadership. For more information about Nashville Zoo, call 615-833-1534 or visit our website at www.nashvillezoo.org.
